FOREWORD

A tiny ray of light attracted our attention
And we began our search. . .
Freshman year witnessed the beginning of many friendships.
Tension. . .insecurity prevailed, yet the light continued to grow each day.
Exploring our hearts and minds for answers to life,
We as Sophs took the world into our hands. . .
But we had yet to learn how to handle it.
Some remained hidden from reality, refusing to leave their own little worlds,
For our search had deepened.
Our spirit grew and we became part of a school we loved.
Hoarse after games, we were proud to be ourselves. . .proud to be Bernardians.
The light grew brighter, for now we, Juniors, had stepped up the pace
To greet the world with our ideas.
Laughter filled our hearts, but at times we became saddened—
For we were becoming ourselves—finding love. . .
Seeking truth and happiness.
We quit playing the “games of life,”
And looked toward the light for a pathway through a temporary darkness.
We then realized who we truly were. . .
And so now as Seniors we must accept this.
For we had become a part of each other,
Sharing the feelings of our hearts, minds, and souls.
Arms opened, many greeted the world, yet still some fell back uncertain. . .
A deep sense of beauty prevailed,
For now the light was so luminous upon a clear, calm sea.
At times when winds became strong, the sea became changed and wild. . .
But would we. . .?
And then some determined, and some timid, stepped forward,
And reached their hand to life to accept their “Place in the Sun.”
The search was ended—for some. . .

DEDICATION

We are happy to be the first class to dedicate our Bernardian yearbook to our new headmaster, Father Richard J. Carelli.

Although with us but a short time, we have found Father to be priestly, fatherly, friendly, and approachable; yet sternly firm where severity is the only alternative, but at the same time sympathetic and understanding.

Noticeable is his boundless energy from early morning to late at night, and from the first floor to the fourth, seemingly to be everywhere at once.

Wholeheartedly dedicated, he has become totally involved with all that is St. Bernard's High, even to making grinders at the Bernardian Bowl Concession stand.

Happy The Peacemakers!

St. Bernard, the Light of the 12th century, has been declared a peacemaker unrivalled in history.

His last public act was to restore peace to the province of Metz, where the nobles and the people were carrying on a bloody war, and already two thousand of the citizens had been killed.

Bernard arose from his sick bed and set off for Metz. He found the nobles and their men of war ready to begin the attack again against the people. Too feeble to make himself heard, he passed from one camp to another, seeking to calm the warlike passions, although without any seeming success.

But during the night, a deputation from the principal nobles declared they would accept his mediation. In the morning both sides were represented. Bernard heard all their grievances and tried to appease them. His words triumphed and soon the fighting men laid down their arms and the kiss of peace passed through all the ranks.

Today we pray for world peace, especially in Vietnam, where so many of our boys are fighting. On Moratorium day at the beginning of senior year, a Mass of Peace was celebrated by Father Carelli in the auditorium with all the school attending. Father's homily on Peace was inspiring and thought provoking. From his words we realized that if we want world peace, then we must begin with ourselves, for we cannot give what we do not have.

If we are to be a force in this movement for world peace, then we must first of all be at peace with ourselves, with our families, and with all men. And this excludes nobody, regardless of race or color, for every man is our brother.

Although the man in the Gospel narrative, lying bloody, wounded, and helpless by the roadside was a stranger to those who passed him by, this did not excuse them from coming to his aid. Only the Samaritan looked upon the unknown stranger as his neighbor and brother and showed him mercy and compassion.

Grant in this age of space
Triumph of your truth and grace.
Lord, you alone are unchanging Truth.
Preserve and ever guide
As your fair spotless Bride
Your ancient Church in ageless youth.

Forty-four years ago in 1926, the cornerstone of St. Bernard's High School was laid. The school consisted of a thirteen-room structure with an auditorium and gym. A few years later it became a central high school; eight portables were built and a garage converted into a Home Ec lab. The new addition to the school was ready for occupancy in 1965. Thirteen new classrooms were available and also new biology, chemistry, general science, language, home economics labs. A chapel and cafeteria were also included in the in the new addition.

Twenty-three Sisters of the Presentation are on the teaching staff of St. Bernard's High School. The foundress of the order, Nano Nagle, has been called the Deborah of her people. Educated in France and later entering Parisian society, she renounced her life of affluence to espouse the cause of her poverty-stricken, persecuted Irish people. She died in 1784. Today her Sisters carry on her work in every part of the world. On September 17, 1969 an English Presentation sister was killed in an air raid over Biafra.

OUR PLACE IN THE SUN

'cause there's a place in the sun
where there's hope for every one where my poor restless heart's got to run.
There's a place
in the sun and before my life is done
got to find me a place
in the sun.

MOVING ON!

MOVING ON!

Like a long, lonely stream
I keep running towards a dream.
Moving on, moving on!

Like a branch on a tree,
I keep reaching to be free.
Moving on, moving on!

Like an old dusty road
I get weary from the load.
Moving on, moving on!

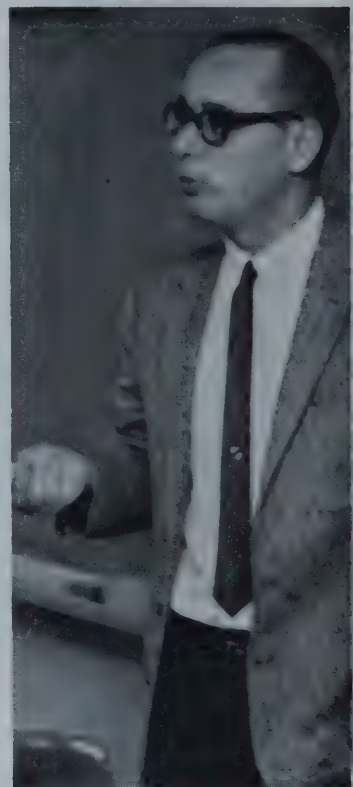

Like this tired troubled earth
I've been rolling since my birth.
Moving on, moving on!

Living in the present,
and looking forward
to the future,
we do not forget the past—
our first three years at St. Bernard's High

When you and I were Freshmen and trying hard to find our place in the sun.

Hands in the air to answer
Mr. Lamothe's question pertaining to early civilizations along the Mediterranean.

The line of French kings has just been outlined on the

In the nationwide Latin contest, Carol Bergeron received a superlative merit certificate and a medal pin. Michael Henault was the recipient of an eminent merit certificate.

At the June awards assembly, Thomas Pandiscio received his letter in football; Daniel Quinn, in track; and Thomas Pandiscio and Daniel Thomas for baseball.

The freshman hoopsters had an 8-2 record for the 1966-67 season. With victories over Fitchburg High and Notre Dame, the team chalked up both City and Catholic championships. Mr. Bernard LeClair was the coach; John Hanley, the manager; and Austin Courtney, official score keeper. Neil Keisling was high scorer for the season. The following boys played on the team:

Michael Comeau
 Paul Dion
 Dennis Goguen
 Thomas Haverty
 Neil Keisling
 Wayne Lussier
 Michael Murphy
 Louis Nano
 Daniel Quinn
 Thomas Pandiscio
 Philip Papoojian
 Richard Rivard
 Robert Sanborn
 Gerard Trudel

Glee Club: Kathleen Baker, Karen Boudreau, Jane Carbone, Kathleen Costello, Beverly Dufort, Denise Guilmette, Jean Langley, Diane Macchio, Diane Pagnotta, Patricia Rouisse, Patricia Wolski.

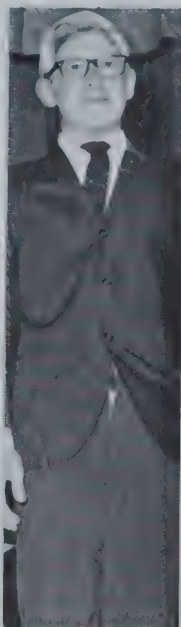

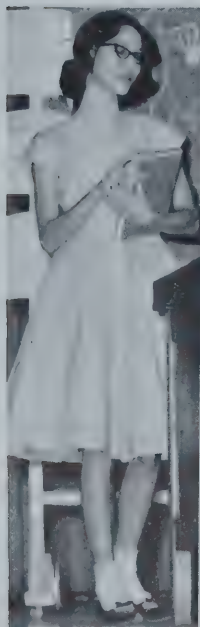

Debating Club: Dianne Bissonnette, Roland Bunnell, Denise Dion, Gary Farnsworth, Patricia Kearney, Richard LaFortune, Daniel Quinn, Marcia Plette, James Wironen.

Christmas pageant: Eileen Berube, Kathleen Costello, Janice DiPietro, Judith Hammond, Lois Joslin, Catherine Morizzo, Mary Mulloy, Patricia Wolski.

Jan Boudreau, vice-prefect
Diane Evans, recorder
Patricia O'Dea, attendance keeper

As freshmen, on November 16 and 17, of '66, we competed with the sophomores, juniors, and seniors, in presenting our one-act play, 'Readin', 'Ritin', and 'Rithmetic.' Sister Mary Laurita directed the play.

Denise Dion was the pretty young school teacher and James Duffy, the fussy and easily upset principal.

The richest girl in town was Katherine Haaker while the poorest girl was Suzanne Murray.

James Cournoyer was the boy who cried without provocation. The big boy was Michael Cote and the toughest and hardboiled was Kenneth St. Cyr.

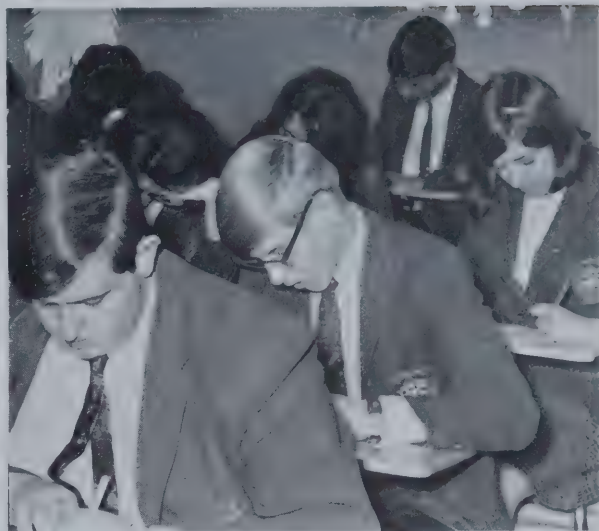

Stephen E. Belliveau was Narcissus Nice who never got in trouble. Taking the part of Liz Sharpe, inclining more on the dumb side, was Betty Morrissey. Cora Clay, the one in every school type, was played by Theresa Legendre.

Elaine Fife was the garrulous, eccentric Mrs. Gribbley.

Sophomore year
found us walking with more assurance,
and feeling that we did belong and did have our special place
in the sun.

Forty sophomores were perfect in attendance freshman year:

Catherine Austin

Winners in the National Essay Contest were:

Jeanne Boudreau
Elaine Caron

Janice Dauphinais
Patricia Kearney

Sharon LeBlanc
Louise Morin

Patricia Kearney and Katherine Haaker were awarded medals in the Voice of Democracy Contest. Jeanne Boudreau, Kathleen Kittredge, and Joan Lavoie also entered the contest.

Theresa Legendre made high honor during the first twenty-week period of sophomore year. Achieving an honor rating were Catherine Austin, Susan Bean, Jan Boudreau, David Courtemanche, Denise Dion, Kathleen Kittredge, Jean Langley, Suzanne Murray, Jeanne Boudreau, Paul Dion, Diane Godin, Dennis Goguen, Dana Reaves, Bernard Richard.

In the Intermediate Debating club were Diane Bissonnette, Denise Dion, Gary Farnsworth, Patricia McElligott, Marcia Plette, and Michael Quinn. Patricia McElligott won a trophy for the best negative speaker on the novice level at the Worcester Diocesan Debate League Tournament.

Jan Boudreau, Denise Dion, Patricia Kearney, and Betty Morrissey entered the Speech club. Katherine Haaker won second place in the Elks Oratorical contest.

As a result of the preliminaries for the Worcester Diocesan Speech Festival, Jan Boudreau, Patricia Kearney, and Betty Morrissey were chosen to enter the finals.

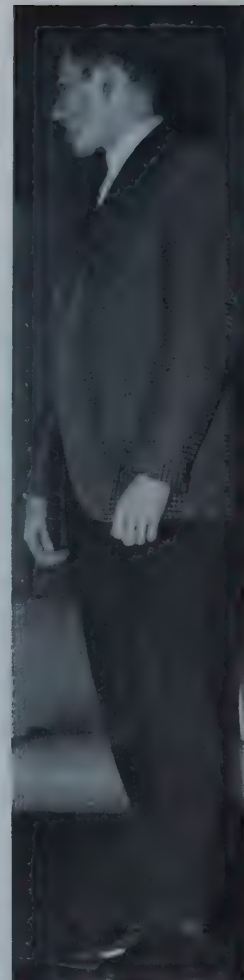

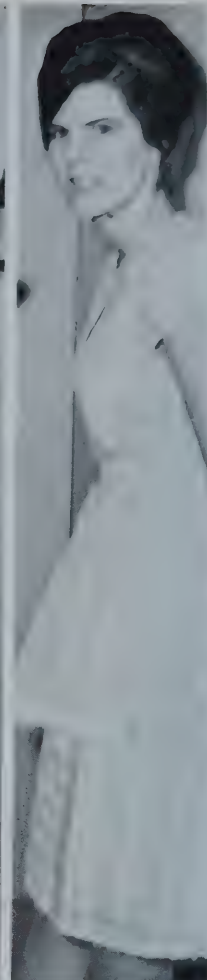

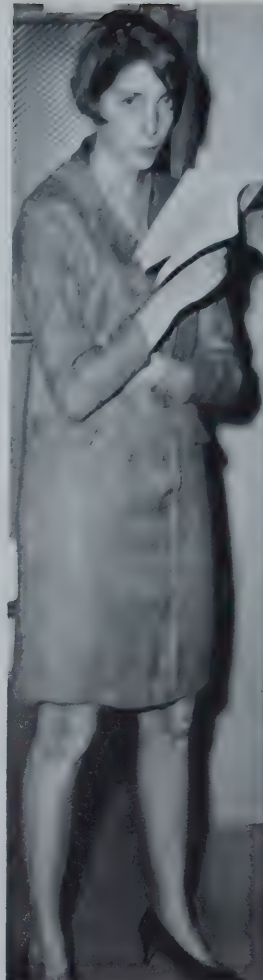

Math Club: Susan Bean, Denis Bedard, Stephen Belliveau, Timothy Belliveau, James Cournoyer, David Courtemanche, Austin Courtney, Rose Guilmette, Judith Hammond, Kathleen Kittredge, Joan Lavoie, Stephen LeBlanc, Diane Macchio, Karen McCarthy, Sheila McDonald, James Neithercut, Patricia Wolski.

Heading the Sophomore Bar-B-Que, under the direction of Mr. McGuirk, were Diane Evans and Raymond Bedard. Also working on the committee were Timothy Belliveau, Betty Morrissey, Charles Swift, Alice LaBelle, Michael Henault, Mary Lou Trudel, Alfred Provencher, Anthony Gasbarri, Gloria Robichaud, Gail Atkinson, Kevin McWilliams.

As sophomores we chose Mister Vincent as our class play and the following cast performed:

An attractive but worried mother Kathleen Kittredge
 Jean Langley
 Her poised, considerate husband Raymond Bedard
 Austin Courtney
 Their talented daughter, 17 Patricia Kearney
 Their vivacious daughter, 15 Rhonda Faucher
 A confiding friend Louise Morin
 An amiable vagrant Kevin Mullahy
 Daniel Quinn
 A family friend, always at ease James Wironen
 Director Sister Mary Esther

The amiable vagabond whom artist Penny brings home to sit for his portrait, because of his striking resemblance to the idolized Van Gogh, proves to be the fairy godfather for Penny. More than a wonderful evening at the dance, he gives her a more meaningful outlook on her art and its place in her life.

The day of the Student Council Election Convention was an exciting one for the whole school. As 1968 was presidential election year, the school election followed closely the procedure of the big national conventions.

In the auditorium, placards and banners were displayed, drums, saxes, and horns were heard, and parading groups demonstrated for their favorite. Neil Keisling and Kenneth St. Cyr were voted in as the sophomore class representatives.

The first language fair held at St. Bernard's High School was a big success. The auditorium was filled to capacity as parents, students, and friends reviewed the various plays, skits, and dances portrayed by the French and Spanish students on March 6.

The realistic sidewalk cafe received first prize in the group project contest, followed by the puppet show, second and the Grand Prix, third.

In the Spanish section first prize went to the Fiesta, second to the Gypsy Camp, and third to the Plaza. The bullfight, the castle, and the market place copped honorable mention.

Sophomore cheerleaders: Denise Dion, Judith Hammond, Susan Tellier, Mary Trudel.

Soph gridsters: Robert Sanborn 35, John Hanley 23, John Creed 47, Stephen Fournier 63, Mark Brideau 72, Thomas Pandiscio 83, Raymond Bedard 70, Michael Tierney 32, Richard Robillard 35, Daniel Quinn 22, Wayne Lucier 52, James Saucier 64, Neil Keisling 73, Stephen DiNatale 66.

In the 1968 Science Fair, Gary Farnsworth was awarded first place in the field of biology. Betty Morrissey, Denise Dion, James Saucier, and Susan Bean received honorable mention.

Awards in mathematics were presented to first-place winner David Courtemanche and third-place winner Marcia Plette.

Other sophomores receiving awards were John Allain, Denis Bedard, Karen Boudreau, Janice DiPietro, Elaine Fife, Katherine Haaker, Jean Langley, Mary Mulloy, and James Wironen.

At the Tahanto Math Fair David Courtemanche took first place for his project and Jean Langley won a third place trophy.

When "Seventy" Were Juniors

As Juniors we had a bigger place in the sun and a bigger place in the Language Fair held on November 14.

The entertainment in the auditorium consisted of French and Spanish dances, a medley of songs in both languages, and the Mariachis, a roving musical band. The two chief exhibits were a French village and a Spanish pueblo.

In the presentation of Don Quixote de la Mancha David Gil-martin was Don Quixote; Rhonda Faucher, Dulcinea; Anthony Gas-barro, Sancho Panza; and Jane Carbone, a vil-lage maiden.

Newly-elected Junior class officers with Father Donahue: Kenneth St. Cyr, president; Diane Evans, vice-president; Raymond Bedard, treasurer; Rose Guilmette, secretary.

John Creed and Stephen sang tenor in the Glee Club; Stephen McManus and Alfred Provencher, bass. Singing soprano were Gail Atkinson, Catherine Austin, Susan Chartrand, Beverly Roy, Irene St. Pierre.

Alto singers were Diane Beauchemin, Eileen Berube, Barbara Garneau, Joanne Haspod, Paula Keating, Joanne Mancuso, Norma Messier, Joanne Monahan, Donna Robichaud, Katherine, Rodriquenz, Susan Tellier.

Classical Club: Raymond Bedard, president, Jan Boudreau, vice-president

Suspenders Club: Diane Bissonnette and Kevin Mullahy

Chemistry Club: Louise Morin, vice-president, Diane Macchio, secretary, Gary Farnsworth, treasurer.

Attending the Science in Action program held at the University of Massachusetts were Michele Caron, Gary Farnsworth, Dianne Macchio, Louise Morin, Ronald Richard.

Carol Bergeron and Suzanne Murray together with three seniors, all top Latin students, attended a Latin conference at Holy Cross College on March 15.

Patricia Kearney and Jean Langley were among the eight Bernardians traveling to the University of Massachusetts for the finals of the state speech festival.

For their outstanding work in Junior Achievement, Kathleen Costello and Mary Lou Trudel were awarded a week's trip to Indiana and were selected to represent the Montachusett area in Atlantic City.

Patricia Kearney gained first place in the Voice of Democracy contest and Betty Morrissey, third place. Contestants were required to speak for three to five minutes on the topic "Challenge of Freedom."

Ten juniors were granted certificates for essays accepted for publication in the national essay anthology: Susan Bean, Jane Cataldo, Jan Boudreau, Gail Despres, Nancy Gagne, Katherine Haaker, Kathleen Kittredge, Jean Langley, and Dorothy Lorion.

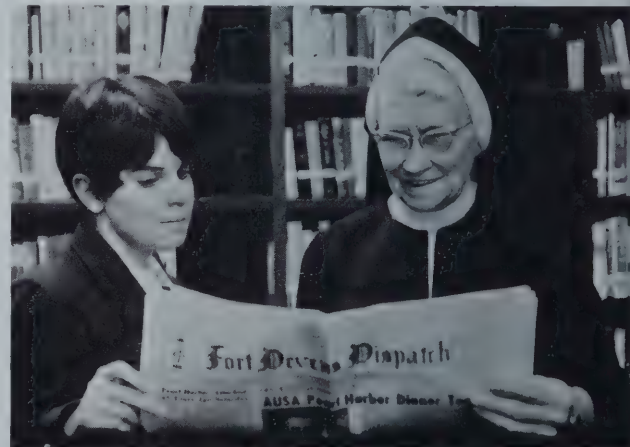

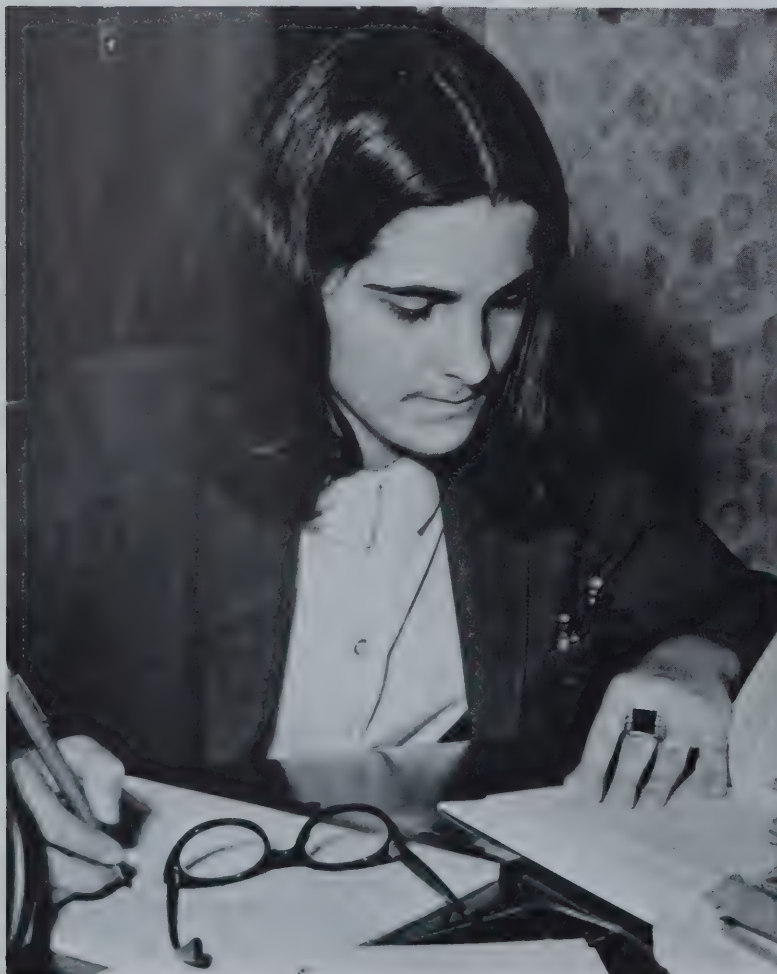

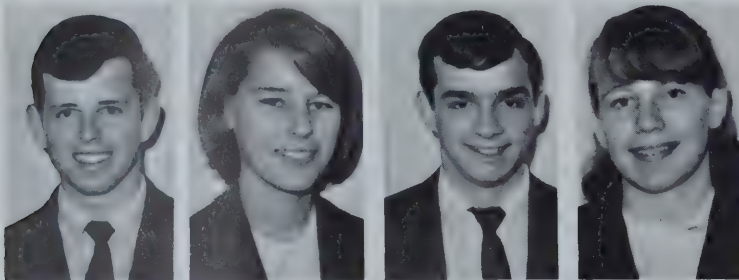

Raymond Bedard and Daniel Quinn take over flag duties for the year and find it a pleasant task.

May 14 marked the blast off of the Science Club rockets at the Bernardian Bowl, aiming to an altitude of 1500 feet with speeds of up to 400 miles per hour.

Patricia McElligott was awarded a $100 savings bond by General Cushman for her essay Is Patriotism Obsolete? The contest was sponsored by Fort Devens.

Susan Bean, Jan Boudreau, James Cournoyer, David Courtemanche, Judith Hammond, Stephen LeBlanc, Diane Macchio, and Marcia Plette were active in the Math Club.

In the chemistry lab with Sister M. Lorraine, juniors prepare oxygen, using a catalytic agent.

At the Awards assembly in June, Stephen Fournier was the recipient of an athletic sweater. Letters were awarded in these sports:

Football: Daniel Quinn, John Hanley, Robert Sanborn, Neil Keisling, Michael Tierney, Thomas Pandiscio, Stephen DiNatale, Mark Brideau, Stephen Fournier.

Basketball: Bruce Carle, Daniel Thomas, Dennis Goguen, Robert Sanborn, Neil Keisling.

Track: Raymond Bedard, Gary Farnsworth, Vincent O'Connell, Denis Bedard, Daniel Quinn, Bernard Richard.

Golf: William Powers, Robert Bilodeau, Stephen LeBlanc.

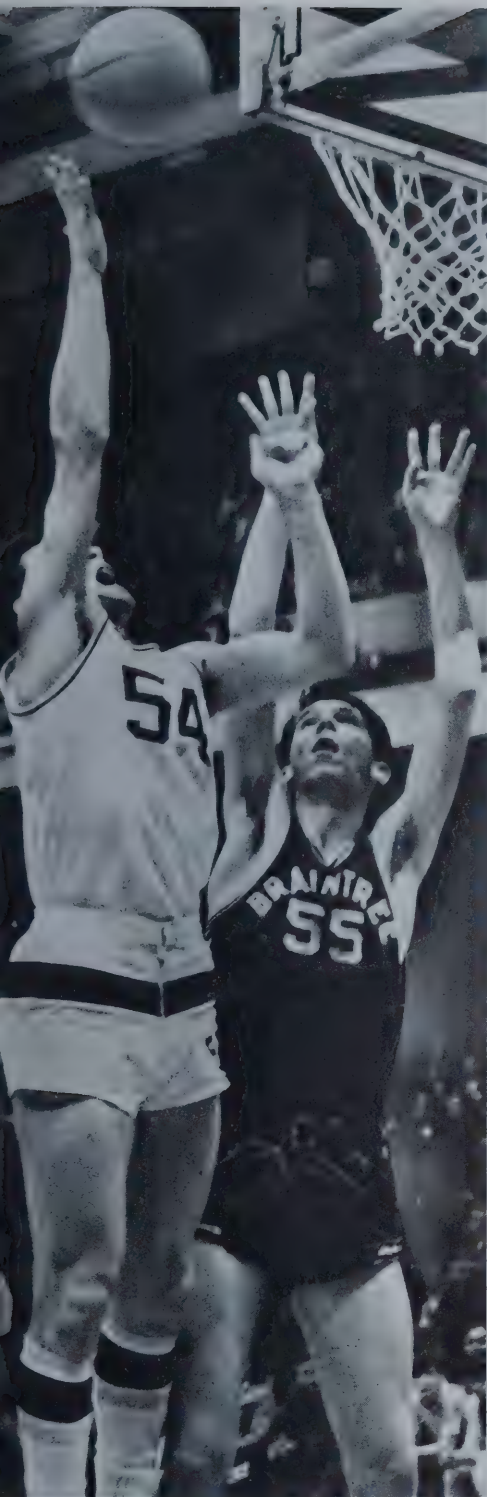

Baseball: Bruce Carle, Daniel Thomas, Richard Rivard, Thomas Pandiscio, Philip Papoojian, Stephen Belliveau, James Neithercut, Dennis Goguen, Gary Bray, Leo Brissette, Robert Sanborn.

Cheerleaders: Denise Dion, Judith Hammond, Susan Tellier, Mary Lou Trudel.

Cross Country: Kevin Mullahy, Richard Chalifoux, James Wironen.

In track, Bernard Richard copped two individual events by placing first in both the 100 yd. and 220 yarder.

Braintree was the first opponent to face at the Garden. The final score was in our favor, 58-49. Dan Small and Eddie Guilmette were outstanding.

In the semi-final game, we met undefeated Catholic Memorial, the tournament favorite. With their tremendous height, they outclassed us, 75-46. Dan Small led SBHS with 18 points. Bob Bourque and Eddie Guilmette each threw in 8 points.

We were Juniors when our basketball team became the District III champs. We defeated Shrewsbury, our first opponent, 65-44. Bobby Bourque topped all scorers with 27 points while Dan Small popped in 25 and hauled down 26 rebounds. Bruce Carle excelled on defense.

Our game with Leominster at the semi-finals in Worcester determined which team would venture to the Boston Garden. With a score of 67-56, the Blue Devils were up-ended. Phil Sweeney took game-scoring honors with 22 points. Victory over St. John's made us the District III champs.

A realistic Hawaiian luau was presented to the Seniors of '69 by the Juniors of '70. A dinner with its delicious Hawaiian menu was served in the cafeteria. Juniors clad in bright Hawaiian attire serenaded their guests with a variety of songs centered around the theme, There's a Place in the Sun. Following the dinner, a dance was held in the festively-transformed gym with its effective Hawaiian decorations of palm trees, grass huts, colorful flowers, fish nets, a volcano, and a mural of the setting sun.

Cheer for the Seniors of Seventy
With a big place in the sun!
A rousing good cheer for everyone
As they go moving on, moving on!

Trees, where you sit, shall crowd into a shade; Where'er you tread, the blushing flowers shall rise...Pope, "Pastoral's: Summer"

Barren winter, with its wrathful nipping cold...As seasons fleet...Shakespeare, "Henry VI"

In the vicinity of rooms 36 and 37...the excitement of pre-election days for the seniors—posters and placards highlighting candidates and paper disks pinned on blazers...a warm September day with Sister Mary Borgia relenting and letting thirsty senior boys drink from the ice-cold bubbler.

Sister Mary Teresa waits in the office corridor for the beginning of her period III Religion class in room 37. For six years, Sister was principal of St. Bernard's High and following this was top administrator for the Sisters of the Presentation.

We also welcome back Sister Pauline Frances, likewise a former principal and top administrator of the Presentation community.

Jean-Louis is determined to return to Montreal. Father and Sister Joan try to persuade him to remain with us a while longer, in spite of the present language barrier.

Six periods are devoted to the teaching of Religion IV. Father Carelli, Sister Mary Borgia, Sister Mary Consilia, and Sister Teresa each has one class; Sister Katherine has two.

The Humanities IV class is held each day, period I, in room 37, with Sister Mary Teresa and Sister Jane spearheading the group.

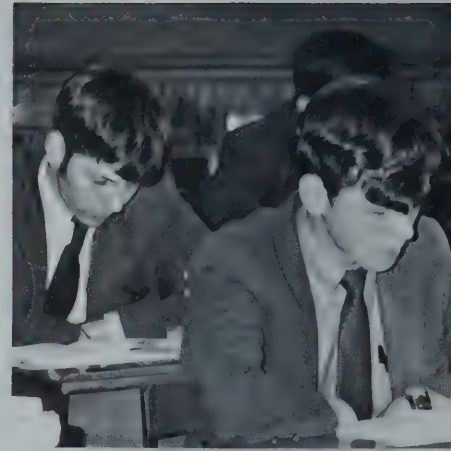

Technical Drawing II to the uninitiated is a most intriguing subject with its drawing boards, T squares, special rulers, angles, etc., and all the geometric designs and intricate types of drawing.

Mr. LeClair has two classes for beginners and one advanced for the seniors.

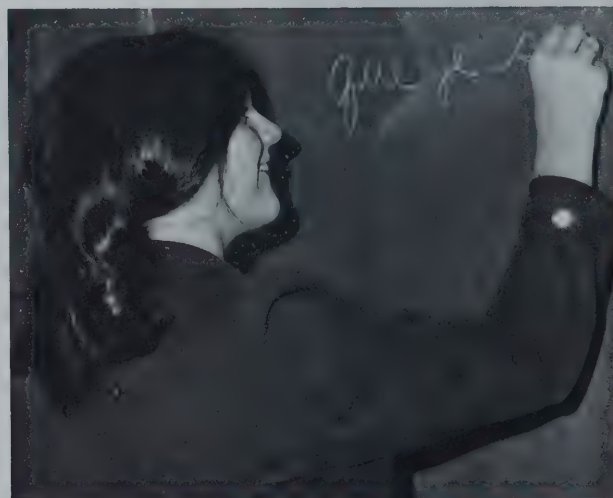

Janice DiPietro and Louis Beauregard are but two of the seniors intent on the problem at hand.

English IV covers the early beginnings of the literature of England up to the present time. Seniors report for this course either to Sister Eileen in room 46 or to Sister Mary Laurita in room 406.

In the Physics lab, Mr. Dattis is checking the experiment of the class making a practical study of constant velocity and acceleration.

Joanne Monahan indicates her ability to write French as well as to speak it.

In advanced Spanish III class, Mrs. Nadar engages the seniors in conversational Spanish.

Likewise in French III, Sister Joan and Sister Mary Noreen endeavor to make their seniors fluent in speaking the French language.

The initiation ceremony of Mu Alpha Theta took place in the auditorium on October 31. The address was made by the president who inducted the new members into the society. Father Carelli presented certificates and pins to associate members. Seniors received badges.

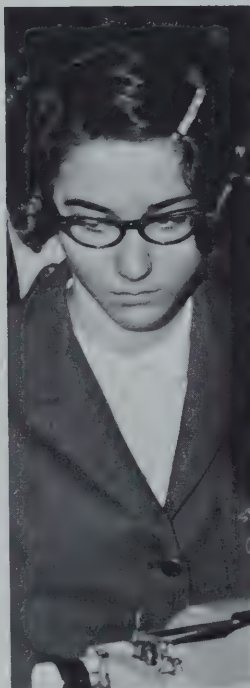

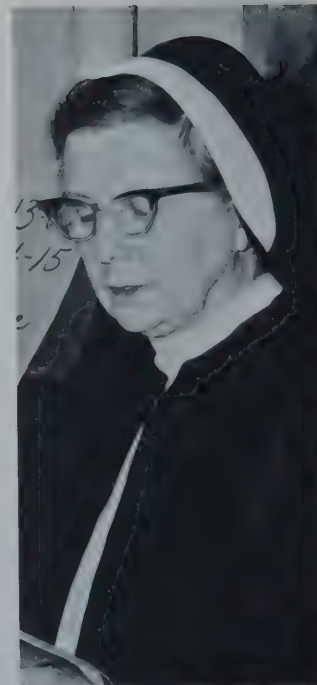

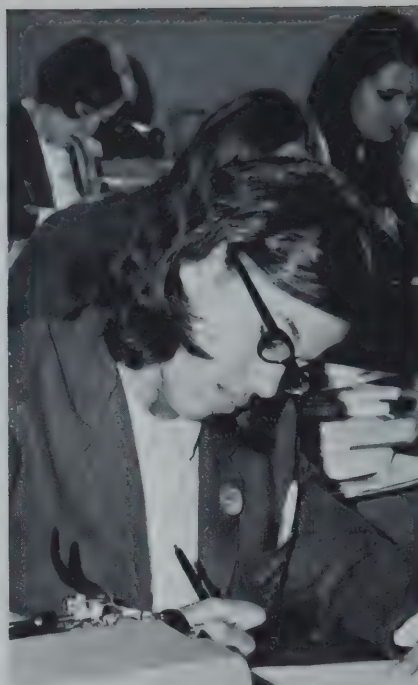

Sponsors

Sister Pauline Normandin
Mr. Francis LaFortune

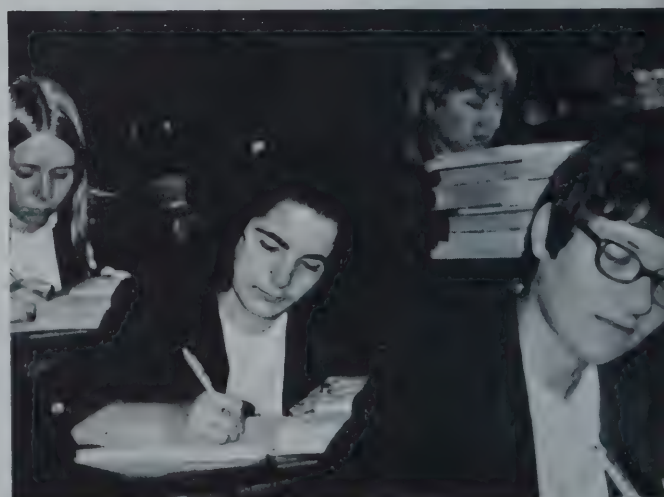

Mathematicians ready for work—John Hanley, Mark Morin, Denis Bedard, Paul Dion, and Roger Gamache.

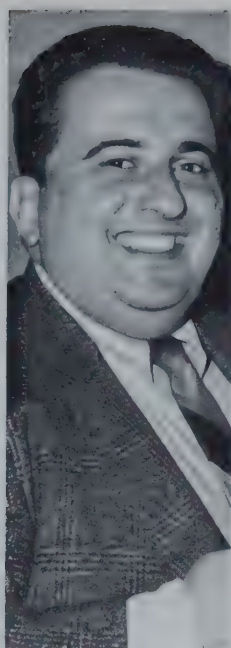

Seniors taking shorthand dictation in September with Sister Mary Esther aren't so sure that June will find them with a speed of 120 w.p.m.

Seniors are to be found in Typewriting I, II, or III classes.

Bookkeeping II and Office Practice are also included in the courses of some seniors.

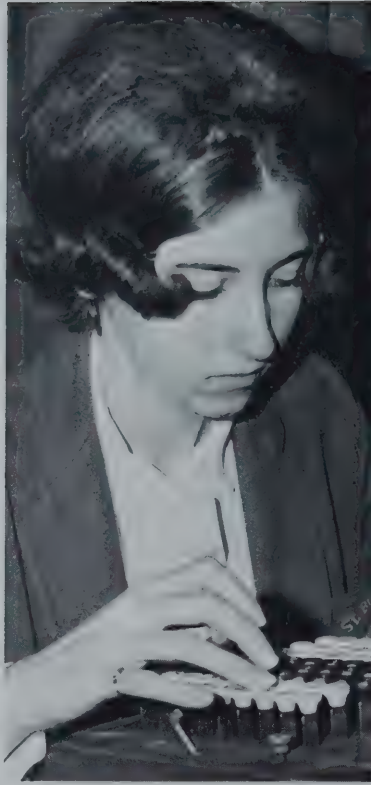

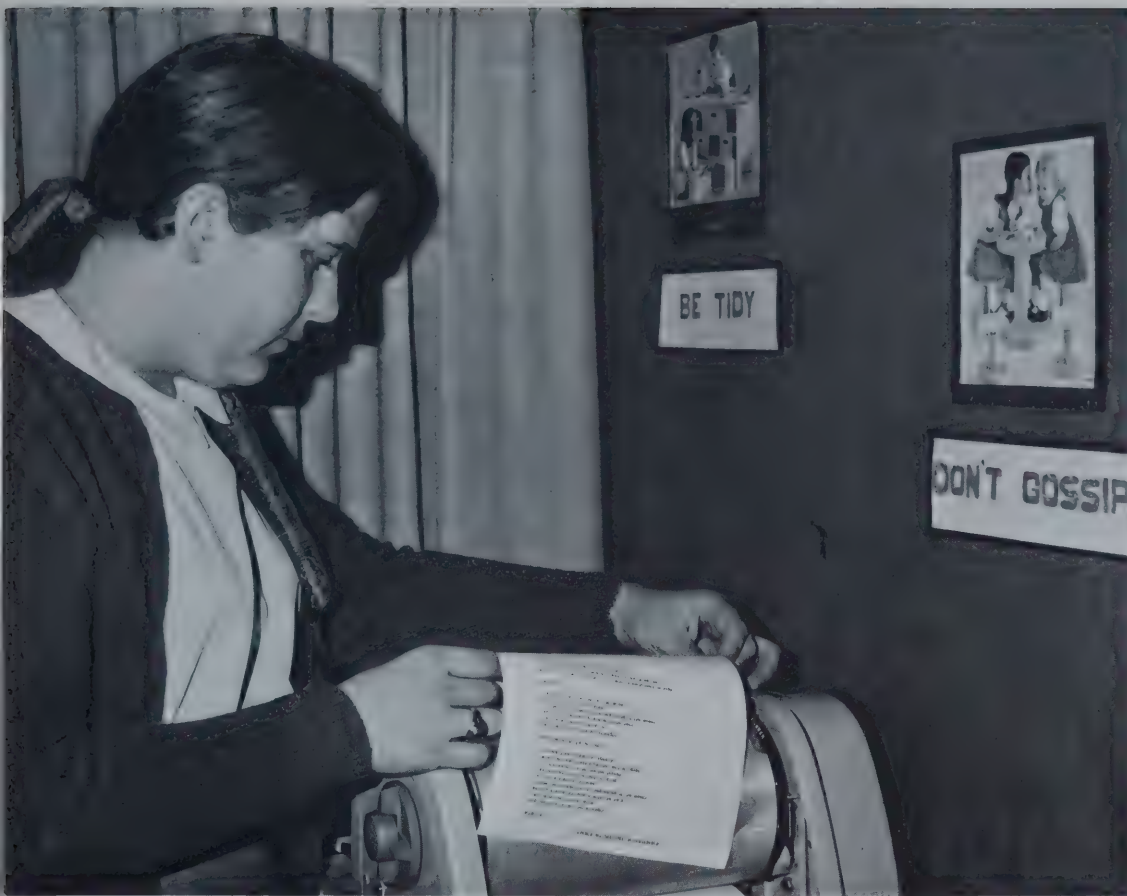

Still retaining that piece of chalk, Mr. Lamothe and Mr. Taddeo give the board a short respite.

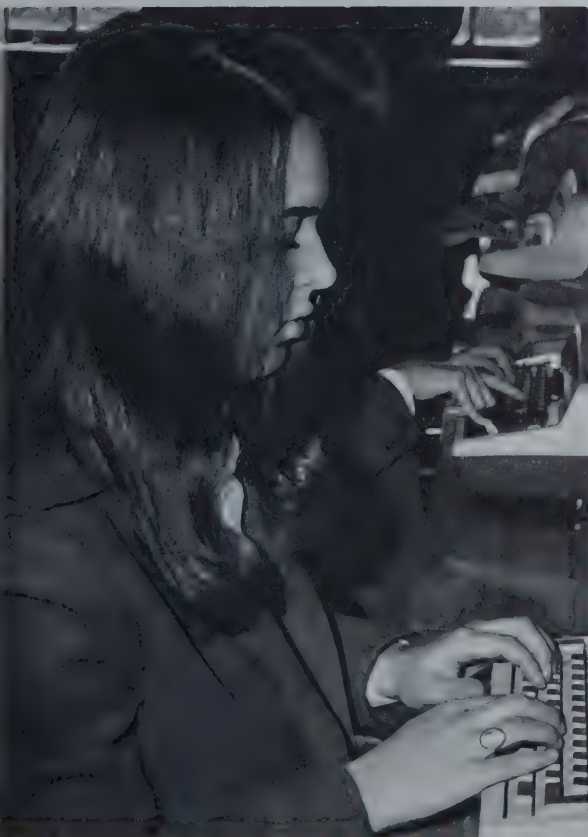

U. S. History and Civics is a must course for all seniors. Sister Mary Borgia has three classes; Mr. Taddeo, two; and Mr. Lamothe, one.

The office practice room is a busy place with its typewriters, electric and manual, comptometers and different types of other calculating machines, and several duplicating machines. Donna Robichaud, Charlene Ouellette, Shirley Palermo, Barbara Garneau, and Patricia Allen are learning the technique of these skills.

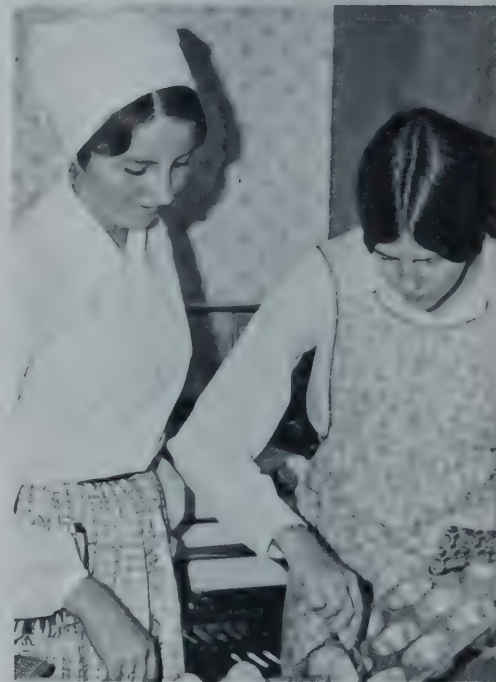

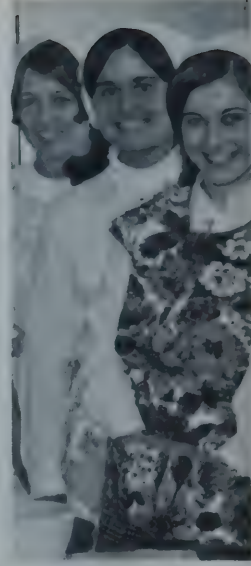

Happy JoAnn Mancuso is elated over the success of her first attempt, all on her own, at the fluid duplicator.

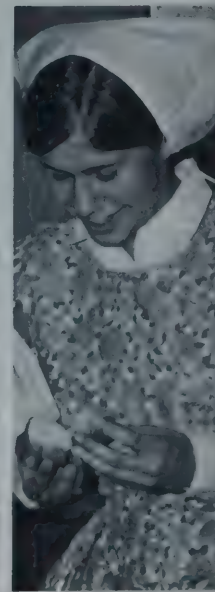

Denise Guilmette and Paula Antil will always take an electric in preference to a manual machine.

Senior Home Ec pupils with Sister Mary Consilia are proving that the test of the baking is in the eating.

It's only September and those light, fluffy, delicious cup cakes, with their tantalizing odors permeating the top corridor, augur well for all the goodies in the offing.

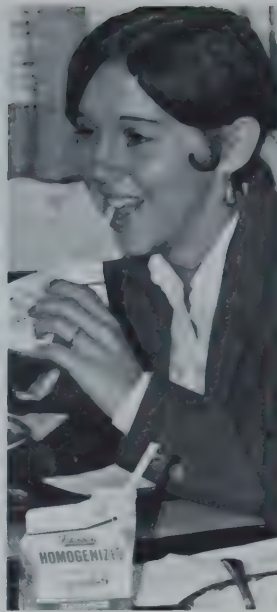

Lois Joslin and Denise Cormier are having good luck in getting the cakes out intact.

Joanne Haspod takes one of many peeks to see if her cakes are rising. Pat O'Dea and Gail Leger agree that they do taste good.

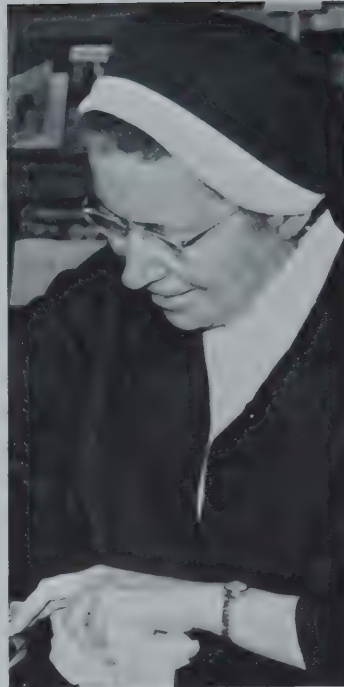

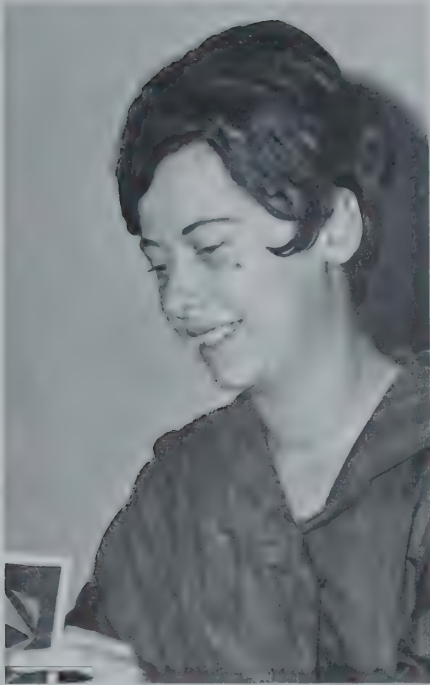

A group of seniors at the last of the three servings in the cafeteria with their first five periods over and only two more to go.

Summer and winter, the lake at Coggs Hall's Park has attracted many of the seniors since childhood.

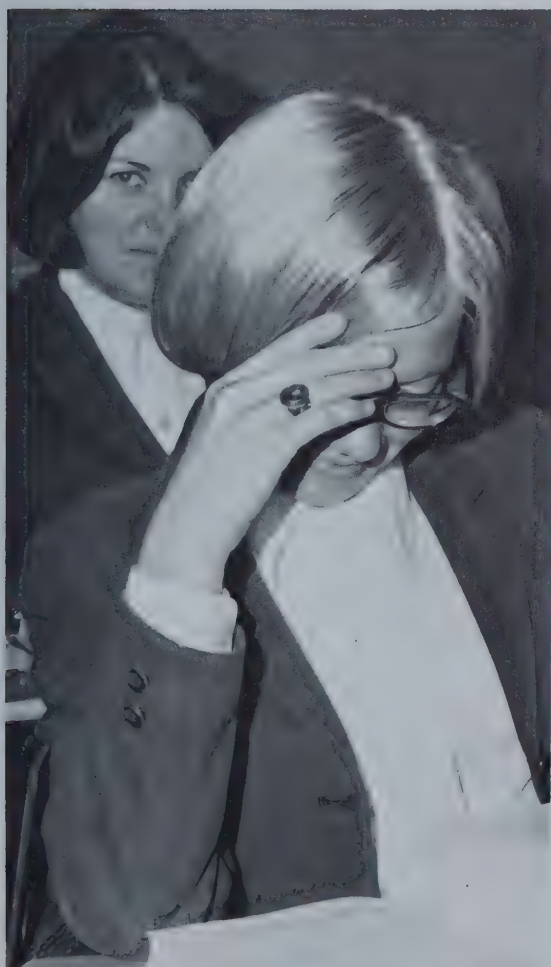

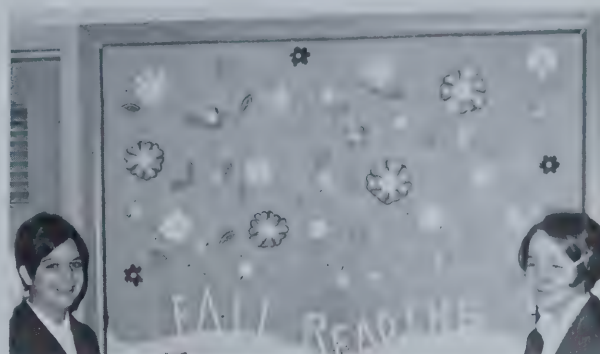

Mrs. Blake and Sister Mary James never seem to have an idle moment in their duties as librarians.

Mary Hackett, Patricia Shea, and Linda Jacques, seniors in the Library club, willingly offer their services to work in the library as aides.

Seniors returning to school in September found bulletin boards colorful, seasonal, unusual, and attractive, thanks to Christine Haverty and Susan Arsenault.

It looks as though Diane Beauchemin will have something to offer in Religion IV discussion.

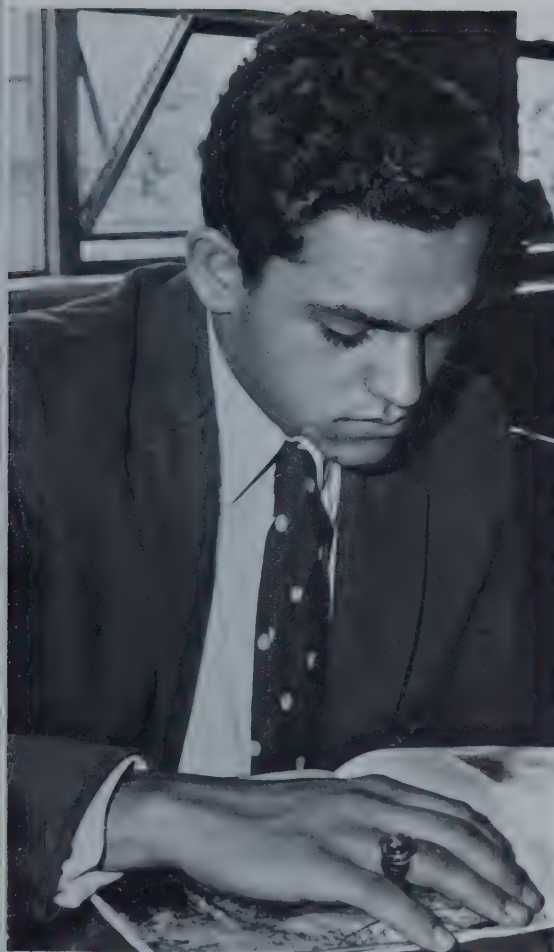

Following along in Sr. M. Laurita's 6th period, English IV class.

In the beginning stages of personal typing, James Richards doubts his ever hitting a speed of 50.

Why the quizzical look of Michael Cannon and the smiling countenance of Robert Parent?

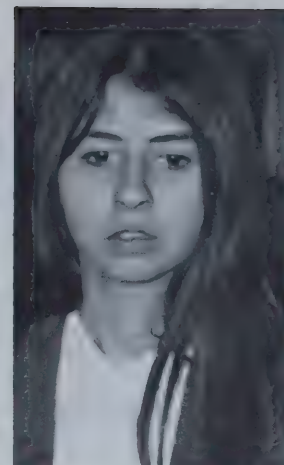

Even as with the most of us, Richard Chalifoux does have his real serious moments.

Michael Caron and John Creed re-fuel at the lockers for the next class take-off.

Grave Leslie and laughing Linda.

Oblivious of all about him, Michael Cote does some concentrating.

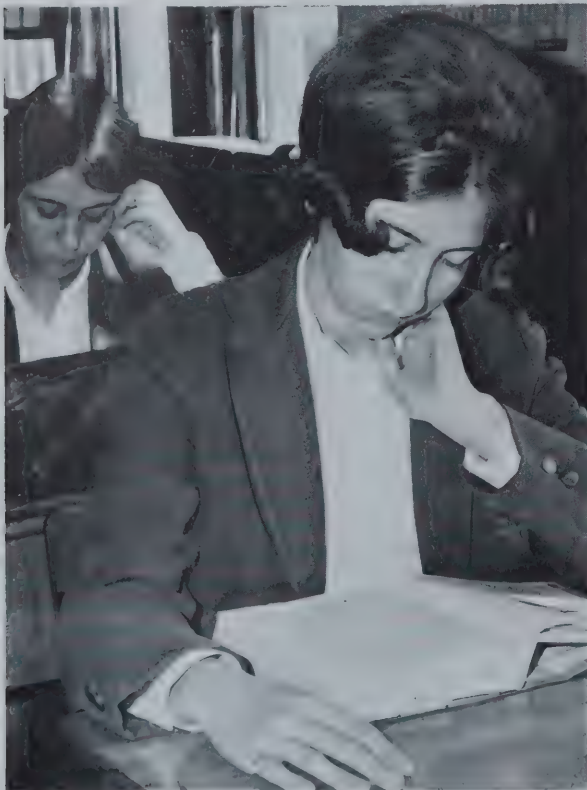

S-Trio leaders—Linda Lasonde, Alice LaBelle, JoAnn Mancuso, Gloria Robichaud—smile as they look forward to making this year the best ever in the history of S-Trio.

Just wait a second and alert-minded Donna Bourgault will have the answer.

Patricia Shea and Jane Carbone believe in smiling away troublesome troubles.

The books are getting their share of attention from Charlene Ouellette and Shirley Palermo.

Everything is under control when Denise LeBlanc helps out in the office.

Unmindful that the camera's eye is upon her, Nancy Gagne remains study-absorbed.

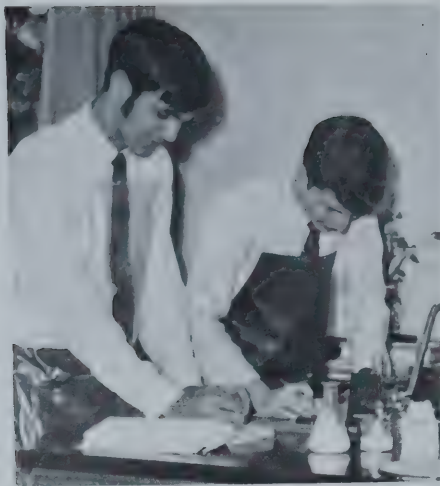

Why the questioning look in Marcia Plette's thoughtful eyes?

Following along in English IV are Robert Bilodeau and Denise Dion, but what is Danny Thomas' mind concocting?

Spanish III may be work for some but not for Diane Pagnotta.

Carrying on experiments in the Bio-Chemistry class with Sister Ellen: Dana Reaves and Vincent O'Connell testing for fat in milk. . .

Catherine Morizzo and Karen King cooling down a water bath. . .

Diane Godin and Elaine Caron culturing bacteria. . .

Jane Carbone and Nadine Caron preparing dilute solutions. . .

Michael Duffy and Paul Dion using Bunsen burner.

Timothy Belliveau and Kevin Mullahy distribute J.A. forms.

JUNIOR-ACHIEVEMENT ASSEMBLY

Kenneth St. Cyr, chairman.

Nancy Credit discusses her problem.

Kathleen Costello and Mary Lou Trudel were awarded a week's trip to Indiana during August of '69, for outstanding work in Junior Achievement.

Kathleen gained the title of Miss J. A. Executive while Mary Lou was chosen as Best Salesman. As winners both were selected to represent the Montachusett area in Atlantic City. Both received trophies.

ACTIVITIES

Under the direction of Sister Joan and Mrs. Nadar, French and Spanish students presented the third annual Language Fair at St. Bernard's. Working around a central theme of unity, the participants developed this theme in the songs and dances of their respective countries. Both groups united in singing the opening song, "It's a Small World."

In charge of lighting effects were Raymond Bedard, Paul Bilodeau, Mark Brideau, Mark Moran, and Craig Martin.

The cafeteria had an old-world look with its typical French and Spanish cafes where refreshments were served.

Richard Boudreau and John Mulcahy, guitarist, form a part of the Spanish singing group, the Mariachies.

En route to the cafeteria are Karen Beaudoin, Karen Zephir, Jane Armstrong, Donna Ciccolini, Katherine Miller, Donna Mella, and Lorraine Plette.

Seen at the gypsy camp are Kathleen Cioffi, Joanne Lautizi, Rebecca Brideau, and Denise Champagne.

Following the entertainment in the auditorium, the visitors were escorted by guides dressed in native costumes, to the gym, now transformed into provinces of France, and sections of Spain and Mexico.

Joan Fredenburg sells choice wines in a very realistic set-up.

Feeding the bull are Jane Carbone and Louise Morin.

Diane Evans and Steven Atkinson help to bring us closer to our Mexican neighbors.

Rhonda Faucher, Diane Pagnotta, and Catherine Morizzo sing Era Ayer.

Puppets and Puppet theatre made by Constance Fluet in this French western.

El Cid: Michael Donnelly, Eileen Berube, Paul Morizzo, Christine Quill, Scott Haverty, Donna Dignard.

Guitarist Andrew Hawthorne and Richard Boudreau.

Entertaining in the gym were these happy Mariachies.

Lion in Winter: Richard Robillard, Paul Chapdelaine, Martin Quinn, Kevin Mullahy, Richard LeBlanc, and Stephen LeBlanc.

The baby bull, taken from a nearby farm, received the most tender attention and care.

Denise Fredette, in the province of Anjou, has a well-stocked wine cellar.

We are grateful to the Fitchburg Sentinel for these pictures and also for their excellent coverage of our 1969 Language Fair.

Claudia Bilotta, a village maiden, in the Basque region of the Pyrenees.

Jane Carbone and Louise Morin adapt themselves to life in a gypsy camp.

Sister Joan Mulcahy and Mrs. Nadar can smile and relax now that weeks of hard work preparing for the Language Fair are over.

The Glee Club present roses to Mrs. Buckley and to Donna Dignard, accompanist. Stephen DiNatale as Santa and John Creed as the Elf have presents for Father Carelli and the faculty.

Sister Pauline Frances receives red roses from the cantata cast.

The student body sang familiar Christmas carols. Father Carelli is trying to inject more zest and joy into the rendition.

DEATH C TH H A K E L L S

Our annual Christmas Dance was held December 30 with Patricia Rouisse and Stephen E. Belliveau acting as co-chairmen.

The auditorium was gaily decorated with wreaths and garlands of holly, snowflakes, a fireplace, and of course, a Christmas tree, all befitting the holiday season. It was a night to remember.

Committees for advertising, decorations, and refreshments were formed. Jane Cataldo, James Cournoyer, Paul Dedeian, Rose Guilmette, Mary Hackett, and Kathleen Kittredge were chairmen of these committees.

A three-act play
presented by the senior class
St. Bernard's High School auditorium
January 28 and 29, 1970
Directed by Sister Patricia

Mr. Morlock, the despicable, money-hungry father, won't let his family do anything; always complains about his pains; feuds with everyone and won't let daughter Mary become engaged to Joe Lanconi because his papa is poor. Joe's father, Luigi, comes to plead his son's cause but is rudely booted out of the house. The old man has a bad heart so he dies shortly after his visit.

The case seems closed except Luigi's ghost appears to Mr. Morlock and decides to haunt him until he gives in to the marriage. Poor Mr. Morlock becomes very despairing and accidentally takes too many sleeping pills and dies. Now dead Mr. Morlock sees his wife and children actually happy again and realizes what a heel he's been. If only he could have another. then Mildred, the maid, wakes him from his bad dream and we find a very reformed Mr. Morlock.

George, I want to sue that man. What man?

The clubhouse took on a new look, thanks to the seniors of '70 who did a fine job with paint and brush. The first job tackled was the clubhouse roof. The concession stands also felt the effect of the paint brush.

David Beaulac, a former Bernardian athlete, took over the coaching of the frosh football team. Miss Emily Amico, an SBHS alumna, now directs the cheerleading squad.

Mr. Richard Lamothe, head basketball and baseball coach, is now the athletic director.

Raymond Bedard was the team statistician for the '69 season.

Thomas Pandiscio was high scorer for St. Bernard's with 64 points which merited him second place in the city school boy ratings. He was selected as the Worcester Telegram and Gazette's Central New England All-Star team captain by the sports writers.

The Bernardian Athletic Association sponsored a banquet for the football and cross country teams and cheerleaders at King's Corner Restaurant. Trophies were awarded to Thomas Pandiscio, Steven DiNatale, Daniel Quinn, and Neil Keisling.

During the summer of '69, the Bernardian Bowl underwent various renovations. No sooner had the track season come to a close, than the Keating Construction Company moved in to repave the entrance to the Bowl and extend the parking area surrounding the gridiron.

The ropes circling the football field were repaired while the field was being reseeded. The concession stands were completely emptied and the floors cleaned and scrubbed. Outside the stands and press box, the walls were sandblasted and repainted. The gate facing the John Fitch Highway was replaced.

In order to prevent further sand avalanches, ditches were dug above the seats.

Sweat and blood, hard-fighting Mike Tierney.

On September 27, at the Bowl, the Bernardians opened their 1969 football season with a disappointing 26-7 loss to Hudson High. SBHS lone touchdown was scored by Tom Pandiscio, co-captain, and Bob Sanborn's try for the extra point was good and left the Saints with a short-lived lead of 7-0 at the half, for they could not move the ball again in the second half.

The Bernardians spirited offense and defense pulled through in their second game on October 4, to defeat Worcester South at Foley Stadium, 22-15. St. Bernard's picked up two touchdowns in the first half, both scored by Tom Pandiscio and both extra points tallied on kicks by Bob Sanborn, staking the Blue and Gold to a 14-7 lead at the half.

In the third period, Worcester scored to take the lead 15-14, but the Saints were not to be outdone for they scored on a pass from quarterback, Dan Quinn, to Mike Tierney. Dan Thomas then rushed over the goal line for the points after, making the score 22-15. This resulted in the final score after a brilliant goal line stand by the Bernardian defense.

The Blue and Gold came alive in the final minutes of play to overcome St. Peter's of Worcester at St. John's field, 22-16, on October 12. The Bernardians hit pay dirt first with Tom Pandiscio scoring on a long run. Bob Sanborn's kick split the uprights and St. Bernard's had a 7-0 lead.

St. Peter's now took control, and the half ended 16-7 in favor of the Guardians. In the third period, Pandiscio once again crossed the goal line and seconds later, he caught a pass in the end zone for the extra points and the Saints were down by one.

With but a few minutes left in the game, Mark Brideau intercepted a pass, which sparked the Bernardian's final drive. With a few seconds showing on the clock, Dan Quinn heaved a pass to Phil Morin who struggled over the goal line. Sanborn's kick was good and left the final score 22-16 with the clock having run out during the play.

The Bernardians, playing at Doyle Field, on October 18, fell to Leominster 31-6. The Blue and White did all their scoring in the first half, tallying 19 and 12 points in the first and second quarters. The Blue and Gold defense held them through the remainder of the game. In the final quarter, Danny Quinn lugged the ball over the goal line to give the Saints their only touchdown.

Traveling to Fuller Field, on October 24, the Saints met defeat at the hands of Clinton. The Blue and Gold suffered from costly fumbles throughout the game, and didn't score until the fourth quarter when Tom Pandiscio scampered 44 yards for their only touchdown. Clinton scored in every period but the first, making the final score 20-6.

John Hanley

A capacity crowd filled the Bowl at the St. Bernard's vs. Fitchburg game. The Bernardians went into and played throughout the game with high spirits. But the final outcome proved to dampen their spirits, losing to an undefeated Fitchburg team, 53-7.

The Saints did not tally until the last period, but only after the Red and Gray had completed their scoring. With Tom Pandiscio doing the bulk of the carrying on the Blue and Gold's only scoring drive, Jack Hanley darted over the goal line from about three yards out. The placement kick by Bob Sanborn added the extra point.

Jack Hanley's touchdown with almost half of the fourth period gone gave the Saints a 12-6 victory over Lunenburg on November 8. Lunenburg cashed in on the scoring first in the opening canto and led at the half, 6-0. But the Bernardians came fighting back in the second half with Tom Pandiscio scoring up the middle early in the third period.

The Blue and Gold were not to settle for a tie, as Hanley raced 66 yards for the touchdown, leaving the score 12-6. Attempts for the extra points after both touchdowns failed. Neil Keisling and Steve DiNatale, co-captain, each intercepted Lunenburg passes in the final minutes to deny the Knights any further hopes of victory.

The Saints ran up against a tough defense and fell to Bartlett of Webster, 20-0. Led by some effective running by Tom Pandiscio, the Blue and Gold threatened to score several times, but the rallies fell short.

After a quick first period score by Notre Dame, the Bernardian offense and defense rallied to overcome the Crusaders, 39-8.

With the second quarter in progress, Tom Pandiscio then tallied the first of his three touchdowns. The Saints were still behind but Notre Dame had only a slim 8-6 lead.

A few minutes later, Dan Quinn intercepted a Crusader pass and raced into the end zone for the score. Pandiscio then tallied the two extra points. The third Blue and Gold touchdown came on a pass from Quinn to Pandiscio, who sped 45 yards for the six-pointer. Bob Sanborn split the uprights for the point after.

With but a couple of minutes left in the half, Pandiscio tallied his final touchdown of the afternoon on a 40-yard jaunt. DiNatale's attempt for the extra points failed, but the Bernardians left the field at half time with an impressive 27-8 lead.

In the third period, Dan Thomas intercepted a Notre Dame pass, which led to another Saints' scoring drive. Moving the ball well, Quinn finally connected on a pass to Mike Tierney for the score. The conversion attempt failed, but the Blue and Gold now had a 33-8 lead.

Finding a hole in the Blue and White defense, Tim Leary scampered down the field for the last Bernardian touchdown in the fourth quarter. The kick was blocked, but St. Bernard's was again victorious for the seventh consecutive year.

Bruce Carle, a fine ball handler, was elected captain of the '69-70 basketball team. Although lacking the height of last year's team, Coach Lamothe was confident that the players would perform well.

However, at the very beginning of the season, the team was hard hit when Danny Thomas and Marty Quinn were sidelined—Danny with a back injury and Marty with a sprained right knee. A little later, Jack Hazell suffered a sprained ankle injury.

In the game with St. Peter's of Worcester, on December 12, Wayne Chalifoux and Jack Hazell led SBHS to a 29-27 advantage at the half. We clung to that two-point spread through the third period, leading 41-39. We still had a one-point edge with 2:32 remaining on the clock when St. Peter's tied the score with a free throw. The final score was 51-49 in their favor. Jack Hazell led game scorers with an 18-point total. Wayne Chalifoux had 16 points.

In our second game with St. Peter's on February 10, played at Notre Dame gym, they held a slim 11-10 lead at the end of the first period. But we came storming back in the second frame to move ahead 26-20. A strong performance in the third quarter pushed us ahead to a 40-34 lead. Our final victory, 60-52. Edward Cataldo had 19 points for game high honors; John Cotton, 13, and Dennis LeBlanc, 10.

In the game of January 6, Holy Name of Worcester, came away with a 75-41 triumph. Jack Hazell had 15 points. At our second game, the Naps again came out on top 86-51. Marty Quinn had a 21-point total, Wayne Chalifoux, 14.

On January 16, we downed Athol in a 64-49 victory. Our game with Sacred Heart of Worcester was also a victory for us, 26-24. We steadily gained ground with the accurate shooting of Wayne Chalifoux and Marty Quinn until we had a seven-point advantage at the end of the third canto. Bruce Carle helped to keep us in the lead. Chalifoux had 14 points and Quinn, 13 points.

In our game with Notre Dame on January 30, the Crusaders controlled the action throughout the contest. Kevin Maynard contributed 15 points and Jack Hazell, 10.

SBHS hoopsters trailed by only three points at the end of the first eight minutes, 18-15, in our game with Wachusett Regional of Holden, but the Mountaineers were ahead at the half, 39-23, and maintained that winning pace to the end, 83-47. Jack Hazell had a 12-point total; Bruce Carle and Neil Keisling, each had 11 points.

On February 20, we topped Gardner, 91 to 75 in the Saints' favor. Jack Hazell had 28 points; Dennis LeBlanc and Ed Cataldo, with 16 tallies each; Wayne Chalifoux and Bruce Carle with 12 apiece.

The Bernardians built up a four-point advantage, 18-14, on the strength of Neil Keisling, Bruce Carle, and Jack Hazell, during the first period of the game with Fitchburg High on December 19. But FHS had a one-point edge at the half and entered the final canto with six-point lead. The final score was 79-51 in favor the Red and Gray. Carle, Hazell, and Tom Pandiscio tallied 12 points apiece.

The Red and Gray quintet was able to take only a one-point edge during the first quarter, 8-7, but at halftime, they had piled up 12 more points, now 20-11. Maintaining their advantage, they held a ten-point lead going into the final period, 28-18. Here our offensive drive held down the Raiders' scoring. Edward Cataldo and Martin Quinn played an excellent game under the boards to aid the attempt to bring about a reversal. But FHS managed to keep in front to register their win, 46-35. Cataldo, Quinn, and Jack Hazell spearheaded SBHS scoring efforts with seven points each.

Leominster High got out in front early and was never headed in our game with them on February 13. SBHS managed to score only nine field goals, more than half our point total coming from the free throw line. We managed 14 points to Leominster's 16 in the second half. But LHS was able to build the count to 43-25 at the end of the third period, and a 19-point final quarter sealed their victory. Wayne Chalifoux was high for SBHS with nine tallies.

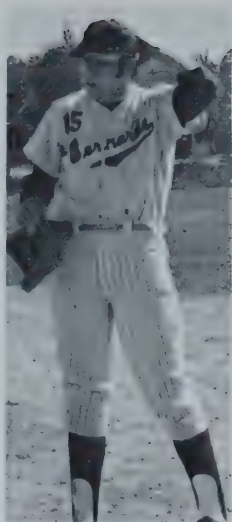

March 24 of '69 found the track course still snow covered, so that tracksters had to practice in the gym. The close to forty hopefuls who turned out for the first workout busily prepared for the season by running around the city streets and exercising in the gym. As almost every event would be covered by a pro from the returning vets, Coach Voght had high hopes for a successful season.

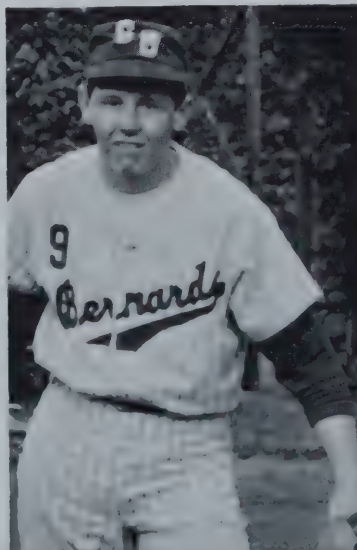

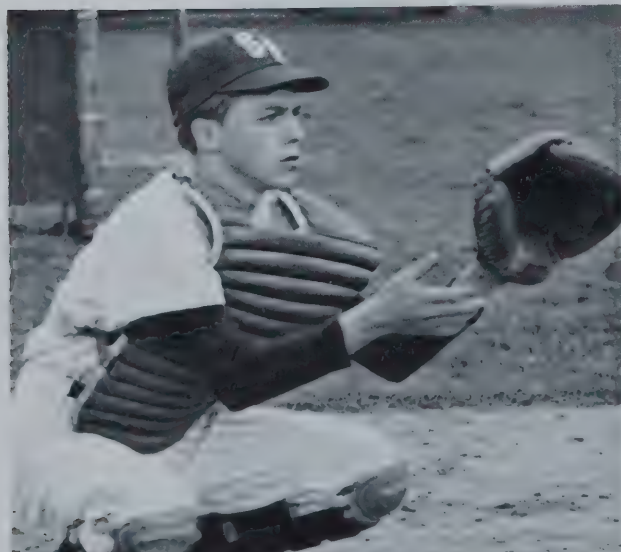

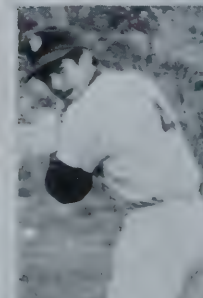

Coach McGuirk and the Golf team of '69.

With 22 diamond dusters returning, Coach Lamothe expected the best year ever for '69. The schedule included the tough N.C.M.C. foes plus the Catholic league teams, therefore providing rugged competition.

Led by power hitter Tom Pandiscio, the team was fully fortified by hard-hitting first baseman Dan Thomas and starting center fielder Phil Papoojian and Bruce Carle. Richard Rivard manned second base.

Also lending strength to the team were Stephen Beliveau, Gary Bray, Leo Brissette, Jack Hanley, Dennis Goguen, James Neithercut, and Robert Sanborn.

As STUDENT COUNCIL elections got underway, posters and buttons were everywhere in evidence.

Nominations were held in homerooms on November 24 which resulted in nine seniors, three juniors, and one sophomore vying for respective positions.

Following two days of campaigning, students assembled in the auditorium to hear the campaign speeches. Each candidate was given an opportunity to tell why he wished to seek such an office. Primaries were then held in homerooms which narrowed the field to two for each office.

On December 1, the close of the campaign came when classes went to the auditorium and secretly cast their ballots.

Elected as president was Stephen DiNatale, '70; vice-president, Daniel Quinn, '70; James Fitzpatrick, '71, treasurer; and Susan Tellier, '70, secretary.

OUR PLACE IN THE SUN AND ON THE MOON...

John Fitzgerald Kennedy,
President of the United States, in his declaration concerning the moon,
declared that the nation
“should commit itself to achieving the goal, before this decade is out, of landing a man on the moon and returning him safely to the earth. . .
This is a new ocean, and I believe the United States must sail upon it.”

After centuries of dreams and prophecies,
the moment had come. . .
Man had set foot on another world.
Standing on the lifeless, rock-studded surface,
he could see the earth
suspended in the velvety sky.
The time was 10:56 p.m., July 20, 1969,
when U. S. Astronaut Neil Armstrong placed his foot firmly on the surface of the moon.
Pausing briefly, he spoke
the first words on lunar soil:
"That's one small step for man,
one giant leap for mankind."

"When I consider Thy heavens, the work of Thy fingers, the moon and the stars which Thou hast ordained: What is man that Thou art mindful of him?"

—Eighth Psalm, quoted by Astronaut Aldrin during return flight to earth.

Penny's club-minded mother and business-absorbed father take a hasty breakfast before starting off for the city leaving Gram in charge.

Penny's sister shows an interest in her brother's contemplated farming project.

The play ends with Penny's sister and not Penny being selected for the leading movie role. But the plot of the boys is such a big success that her all-absorbing interest now is the coming tennis meet. Her brother buys the farm of his dreams and his happiness is complete when the maid with a past stage career consents to be his bride.

THE OUTCASTS OF POKER FLAT
a fight for survival for nineteen days
during a blinding blizzard

The first to die is Mother Shipton. Oakhurst carries out her wish to be buried in the snow.

Characters

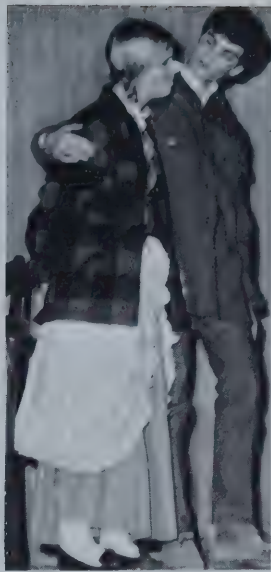

Uncle Billy	Richard Allain
Mother Shipton	Denise Fredette
John Oakhurst	Steven LeBlanc
Duchess	Sharon LaFleur
Tom Simson, a young man	John Carpenter
Piney Woods, his fiancée	Joanne Sonack
Jim Wheeler, a solid citizen	Paul Chapdelaine

Place: a cabin somewhere in the Sierra Nevada Mountains in California.

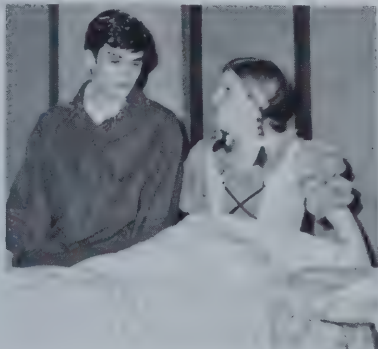

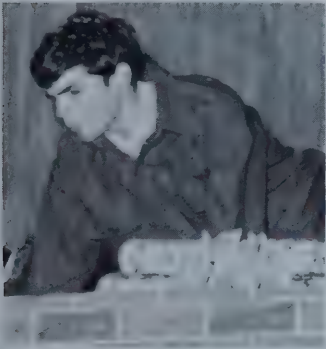

Time: From November 23 to December 12, 1850

Director: Sister Ellen Elizabeth

Best actor and actress awards: Steven LeBlanc and Denise Fredette

Tom and Oakhurst have met before in a poker game in which Tom loses all he has, but the gambler returns it to him. Tom reassures Piney in her fears.

Tom puts more wood on the fire, and comforts Piney that by morning the snow will be over and one of them can go for help.

Gathering around to forget their troubles as Piney strums on her guitar and hits a very rousing rendition of a well known song.

Piney and the Duchess are alone. Uncle Billy has taken off with most of the food. Tom and Oakhurst are braving the storm to get help.

Tom returns too late as Piney dies in his arms. Jim Wheeler tells Tom that Poker Flat never meant this to happen, as he sees the dead bodies of the two women.

Sister Mary Laurita is about to close the book store, adjacent to the cafeteria, for the day, after attending to the needs of newcomer Lisa Marceau.

Susan LeBlanc and Susan Richard are on their way from the cafeteria to period VI class; Carol Lamothe also accompanies them.

Michele Despres deposits her lunch dishes and silverware in the proper receptacles.

Linda Palmieri has a good armful of books to carry up the stairs from first-floor cafeteria to upstairs classroom.

Lawrence Gonynor, hand raised, in Math II class.
 Annette LaFortune, Susan Messier, and Marion Kibort show a lively interest in the subject matter being propounded to them.
 Betty Morin and John O'Sullivan are losing no time as they hurry along to the next class.

Karen Beaudoin is seriously attentive.
 Therese Rajotte volunteers an answer.
 Sister Jane in Latin II observes the work being done at the board.

A Biology I class in the lab with Mr. McGuirk-Barbara Schickel, Lynn Primeau, and Kenneth Leger.

Michael Beauregard legibly and neatly demonstrates the correctness of his math problem on the board.

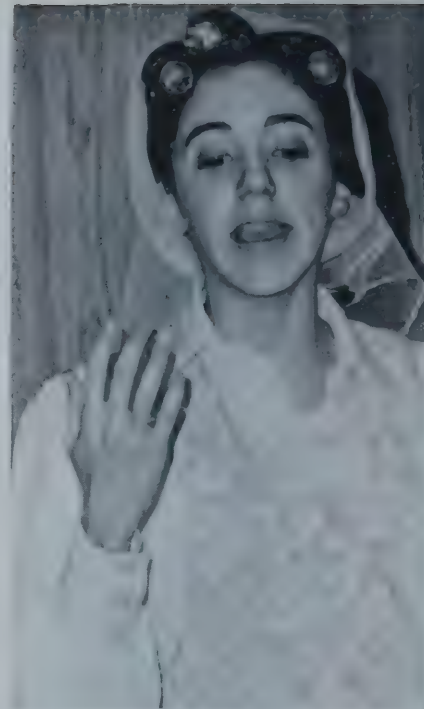

Lunch over in the cafeteria. . .dishes disposed of. . .almost time to return to class. . .Robert McLennan, Thomas Leary, Steven Atkinson, Kenneth Draleaus, Richard Nikitas.

Eleanor McManus and Marybeth McCaffrey wonder if it's true that an apple a day keeps the doctor away.

The flower plot in the faculty parking area is a riot of color on this sunny September day, ideal for attracting the humming birds.

Christine Quill, Donna Stanton, Shirley Christian, and Virginia Steinbring.

As the first couple back from the scavenger hunt gets first chance to win $10, Bonnie and Nick think hard before starting off.

SCAVENGER HUNT was the one-act play selected by the Sophomores. John Siciliano was Mr. Morgan, a realtor, who took a great interest in the teenage group and had fitted out a basement recreation room in his home for the use of his daughter and her friends. Catherine Cote was Mrs. Morgan, his wife, a gentle, motherly person also with an interest in the younger set.

Diane Pelletier was Bonnie, their teenage daughter. John O'Sullivan was Nick, her friend. Kathleen Thibodeau was Mrs. Keating from whom the teenagers hoped to get a store at a low rental. Joanne Courtemanche was Mrs. Wallace, an over-talkative neighbor. Dennis O'Rourke was the policeman called in to investigate a clothesline theft.

Donna Godin, James Connolly, Louise Caron, Robert McClellan, Mary Lynn St. Cyr, Michael Donnelly, Mary Lou DiPietro, Steven Atkinson were members of a teenage club.

John O'Sullivan was judged to be the best actor and Joanne Courtemanche, the best actress. Sister Mary Esther directed the play.

Bonnie and Nick are the first to return and now the search for the treasure.

Officer Flynn declares he will make no arrest.

Flynn takes the wheelbarrow to get it out of the way just as Mrs. Keating backs up and sits in it. Mrs. Wallace lands in the trash can.

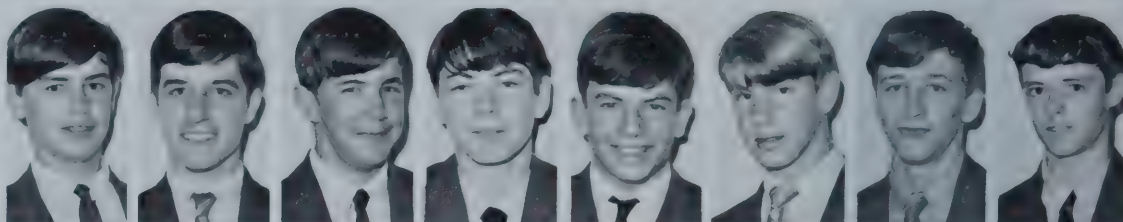

The other couples return and pile wheels of all kinds, toys, drums, bells, dishpans, fruit, etc. on sofa, chairs, and floor.

Bob. Yeah, but—

Father. Don't interrupt. See this store? Sporting goods. Every town has a sporting goods store, but there aren't many that can top mine. Why? Because I didn't stop fighting at the Bulge, boy, I kept right on. I fought until I got every franchise there is to get, and now people come for miles to buy from me. Why?

Mother. Then you'll take back your invitation to the prom?

Larry. I can't do that. I'm not a little child any more. . . Today she smiled at me. No one's ever done that before. She smiled at me, and she talked with me, and for a little while I felt I could hold my head up, like I was somebody. . . Something very nice happened; we were peaceful, and we enjoyed each other's company.

Best actor and actress awards
Carol Cormier

Larry is not a sharp dresser. He has a scholarly appearance, the appearance of one who is at home with books and nothing else.

Larry glances sideways at Betty, who is reading, then he opens a book, Betty glances at him, unconcerned, then goes back to her reading. Again, Larry looks at her. This time a long, worshipful time... Finally, Betty smiles and say, "Hello, Larry." He blushes, turns back to his book, knocks his pencil to the floor.

SBHS Alma Mater

O Alma Mater, fair and true,

Our song we'll sing to you.

Thy sons and daughters here proclaim

The glory of thy name.

Thy colors we'll keep flying,

Blue and Gold on high.

Thy banner bright,

We'll guard aright.

All hail, St. Bernard's High!

Still seeking the light
And our place in the sun. . .
With memories of the past,
An awareness of the present,
And a concern for the future.

Alone we never would have had
This Bernardian of 1970. . .
Therefore, thanks to the many
Who rendered a service to us in
One way or another, especially
To you, Our Supporters!
